Reom, to-night, a classical concert will be given by the baritone Dr. Guilmette, and some admirable players will take part in it. Mr. Henry Cooper, leader of the Philbarmonic concerts, London, first violinist to the Queen, &c., will perform in a concerto. Two quarters for violits, viola and violencedo will be readered by Mr. Cooper and Messts, Noll, Ryer and Bergner, tures of Mr. Eufeld's celebrated party-the one Mozart . fourth quartet (in E flat), the other Fry's cleventh quartet (in C minor). Mr. Cooper is one of the first violinists living, and there is great curiosity in musical circles to hear him, the first violin of the Beethover Quartet Club, London, execute works of that kind A piece by Mr. Goldbeck, senge by Miss Milner, Dr. Guilmette, &c., will form part of the entertainment.

THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—The Academy troupe now is in full action. Performances by day and pe formances by night. Operas German, Italian, French: a thorough cosmopolitaeism appearing to animate the manager. We have received a circular from Herr Ulmann. It is something stupendous. It treats of music pecuniarily, fashionably, esthetically, philosophically and sympathetically. The Academy certainly ought to shine under such elab rate expositions of the ends, aims, practicabilities, possibilities, yearnings and determination of its head. We are to have the Huguenets on or about the 5th of March in a style, we are informed, of unprecedented vastness and grandeur, rivaling the French Imperial Opera House, the lyrical wonder of Europe. In April, Musard, fragrant from Paris, prince of Terpsycherean delights, will be herewill be at the Academy-will be, we are told by Herr Ulmann, at the head of an orchestra of 100-will give all the known novelties of 3-4, 2-4, 6-8 tempi-all the transcendentalism of the pedal ictus-of the sonorous excitants of youthful heels in polite and graceful circumambience-of the theory and practice in imitating glorious Apollo, Grecian god of Poetry of Motion, spherical trigonometry, of music by the bands beaven, and so forth. ATTEMPT TO FIRE BELLEVUE HOSPITAL.

Yesterday morning a bed in one of the cells of the Bellevue Hospital was discovered to be on fire, but further damage was prevented by throwing the burning matraes into the yard. Upon examination the Warden, Mr. Daly, learned that a pumper from the Workhouse on Blackwells I claud, who had been brought over the previous day to do some work about the ground, was confined in the cell in which the fire was discovered, and the fellow was forthwith arrested Warden Daly sent the accused, who gave his name as James O'Brien, to the Jefferson Market Police Court, and Justice Quackenbush committed him for examination.

LAW INTELLIGENCE

THE GREENWICH-STREET MURDER CASE. COURT OF OYER AND TERMINER-FEB. 24. - Before Juage

This Court was opened according to adjournment.

Mr. Sedgewick, Assistant District-Attorney, moved that sentence be passed upon Wm. H-ger, who has pleaded guilty to manslaughter in the fourth degree, on the person of Teresa Spitzlen.

The prisoner, on being asked what he had to say why sentence should not be passed upon him, made or reply.

Judge Ingraham then passed sentence. He said that he approved of the course of the prosecution in receiv-ing the plea of manslaughter, because he believed that prisoner was not an active participant in the murr in question. He had received affidavits tending to show the good character of the prisoner, and had been urged to sus-pend sentence in this case, but he did not believe such a course to be consistent with the public welfare, or the duty of the Court.

The Court was willing to relieve the prisoner, as far as possible, from the digrace of punishment, in the hope that he would lead a better life in future. The sentence would, therefore, he one year in the City Prison, instead of the State Prison.

Usually, at this season of the year, our merchas, who do a Southern business are actively employed in looking after their customers from below Manu as Dixon's line, and showing them their new stock arrived in town, and it is estimated that this trade wi be from four to six weeks later than usual. The preportion of failures as been much greater at the North than at the South; but on the other hand the man chants from the latter section are quite as much pinches for want of money. The low price of the cotton ora the late rise, according to present advices, is fast bring ing the stock into market. The tendency of this is circulate cash more freely in that quarter, and its effect will be seen here in the spendy atvent of the used number of Southern merchants. Our jobbers say the though they expect to renew or extend the obligations of their number-one customers, where necessary shaky class must not hope to lap ever their old counts with new purchases. Altogether the amount of the Scuthern Spring trade is likely to fall consider below that of former years; and the same may be of the dry-goods trade generally.
